

Dr. Young Talks At Kiwanis Club

The Kiwanis meeting Wednesday was especially interesting when Dr. Young of the State Department of Health was the speaker. He told of some of the things that that department is doing in the way of promoting better health of the citizens of Michigan.

Several guests were present from Grayling—Frank Shipp, president of the Grayling Kiwanis club, Paul Macdonald, Norman Glasser and Ray McKinley. Each was informally presented by President Clippert.

Dr. Young, who is spending a few days in this county hunting deer, began his address by saying how fortunate are the people of Grayling in having Dr. Keyport and Dr. Clippert for physicians. These doctors are recognized not only in Michigan but nationally as well, he said.

According to the speaker the big object of his department is to work for the lowering of the death and sickness rate. The State Department, as a part of its functioning, provides the tools for the local health officers and at all times aim to know when and where there are outbreaks of communicable diseases. Such diseases must be checked almost as soon as they begin. Due to modern sanitation and methods, typhoid fever is almost entirely stamped out. The death rate in Michigan is now only about 50 out of 1,000, due to modern sanitation.

Traverse City, one of the latest to establish a sewage disposal system, in spite of the once bitter opposition toward it, is now delighted with the improvement. The bay is now free from pollution. The State laboratories now provide new methods which are passed along to the physicians of the State.

All this wonderful work that is being done by the State department is accurately recorded. The percentage of errors is only about 1/2 of 1%, which is almost nil. The diphtheria record is the lowest in Michigan of any state and nation in the world.

Remedies and methods have been invented by Dr. Young and other members of the State staff, which are passed along to Michigan physicians, and sold to other states and nations. The revenue from these sales are used for further advance of health science here in Michigan. The State department has given away products for the benefit of the people of Michigan that would cost many millions of dollars.

The above is only a few of the many things of interest that were told by Dr. Young. It was quite a revelation to most of those present to learn of some of the things the State is doing in the interest of better health.

The people of Michigan are fortunate in having such a scientist as Dr. Young at the head of this important department.

BAKERY NOW OPEN Is Model of Cleanliness

The Bakery, now operated by Peter Lovely, is open and doing business. Last Saturday, to mark the event, tea, cakes and cookies were served visiting ladies, and it was a continued round of reception for two solid hours.

One is struck with the immaculate appearance of the place, and the attractive arrangement of the store, with its display cases and counters. And within the cases were displayed delicious looking baked goods—pies, cakes, cookies, fried cakes, rolls and many other goodies, while shelves were lined with brown-crust loaves. And new plate-glass windows provide attractive places for window displays.

The store is managed by Miss Veronica Lovely, daughter of the proprietor, and on that day she was assisted by Misses Georgiana Olson and Helen May.

A peep into the bake room also was a revelation in cleanliness. Every part of the interior had been painted, as well as the shelves and frames of the baking machinery. Here Floyd Lovely, a nephew of the proprietor is the baker. He learned his trade from A. R. Craig, one of the best bread bakers in Michigan. His loaves were brown crusted and looked fresh and delicious. He is being assisted by William Neal.

Peter Lovely himself looks after the making of the pies, cakes, rolls, doughnuts, cookies, etc., which is an assurance of their goodness. He says that business starts out with his baked goods in every store in Grayling with one exception. The Lovely's have always been good citizens, and certainly they know how to cook and bake and it looks as tho Grayling was lucky to have them at the head of our bakery. Opening of the bakery has put several persons into steady jobs and it means an added payroll for Grayling. The more business they get the more people they will employ, and there will be more money spent in Grayling. Ask your grocer for Grayling bread and accept no other. In return you will get excellent baked goods and be giving your patronage to a local industry. We wish them good luck in their new enterprise.

Crash Sends Se- veral To Hospital

An automobile occupied by Mrs. Duane McWilliams, Roscommon, and Mrs. Louis Blanchard, of Detroit, crashed into a CCC ambulance on U. S. 27 about 10 miles south of Grayling Monday at 8:30 p. m. C. J. Webber of Higgins CCC camp and the two ladies are in Mercy hospital suffering with injuries.

It is reported that the ambulance was standing on the highway while Webber, an auto mechanic from Camp Custer, who is in charge of repairing the vehicles used in the several CCC camps of this part of the state, stood in front of the ambulance for testing the lights. The car with the women came from the south, striking the rear end of the ambulance wrecking the auto while the ambulance was driven forward, running over Webber. The latter received a severe scalp wound. Gerald Garenger, an enrollee with the ambulance was uninjured and persuaded another driver to take him back to camp for help.

Assistance from another car was requested for taking the injured ones to Grayling hospital, but the driver refused to do so, it is claimed, because he claimed the women were intoxicated. In their injured condition they apparently were dazed and refused to be assisted out of their wrecked car. Thus the women were left alone in their car until assistance could come from Camp Higgins.

Capt. Murphy and other officers of the camp immediately began an investigation to ascertain definitely how the accident occurred and just what efforts were made to care for the injured after the accident.

It is reported that Mrs. Blanchard suffered a broken leg. All are getting along nicely according to last reports.

LOTS OF HUNTERS

Grey skies with no snow and mud weather greeted deer hunters for the opening of the season last Friday and has continued such so far. Register of Deeds Konnow Hanson seems to have been the first local hunter to fill his license. He was out on the opening morning at seven o'clock and back home by nine with his buck.

Don Peterson, 17 years old, is proud of shooting his first deer and he bagged it on the first day—a four pronger. And yesterday his dad, Hans L. Peterson, superintendent of Grayling Fish Hatchery, filled his license with an 8-point buck.

Another lucky nimrod was Jimmy Weiss, a sophomore at Grayling High. After school Tuesday, armed with his gun, he was out in the wilds an hour or so when he came home with a ten pointer.

Other local nimrods who have filled their licenses include: Gale Clise, Earl Koivune, Elgin Benware, George Burke, Dennis Lovely, Bert Markby, Clare Johnson, Joe Bielski, Leo Moroney.

There were swarms of out-of-town folk here hunting and we noticed a lot of cars pass through town with deer tied to the running boards. Over the week end the streets were alive with red caps.

G.H.S. Vs. Alumni Friday Nov. 22nd

Grayling high's green-clad basketball warriors open their 1935-36 season when they meet the Alumni at the school gym on Friday, November 22nd.

Coach Cornell considers this game as one of the most important games of the season. The first game, if won, gives the players a confidence in themselves and in the team as a whole. They also need the backing of the school and the community.

Last year the Alumni game was thrilling with the Northern Lights leading until the fourth quarter when the Alumni forged ahead to a victory of a few points. This year's game, with six of last year's letter-men returning promises to be fast, peppy and exciting and a hard push for the Alumni.

The high school squad includes: Borchers, Chalker, Hanson, Lovely, Smock, Dunham, Jorgenson, Charron, Murphy, Ward and Joseph. The opposing team is: May, Sorenson Dawson, Don and Ken Gothro, Robertson, Hendrickson, and Korhonen.

The date of the Basketball Clinic has been set for December 11th. This Clinic will be held at the school gym and will consist of an interpretation of the rules and a demonstration by members of the Varsity basketball squad.

MAUD GOES MODERN

(R. E. Prescott in Detroit Saturday Night)

"Maud Muller on a summer's day Raked the meadow sweet with hay."—Whittier.

I often wish that I had lived in the days of long ago when the writer folks were not as thick as the flakes of the fallen snow—like the days when the pretty Muller maid, as she garnered the newmown hay, smiled at the judge on his chestnut horse and he lingered to say good day. She gave him a drink from a roadside spring and he thanked her, if I recall. Then he went his way and she raked her hay. They remembered and that was all.

And a poet told the simple tale. Imagine, if you can, a tale so artless being told by a modern writing man. No purple passion's hectic heat, no Freudian complexes, no psychiatric interludes, no mingling of the sexes. They spoke of the hay and the trees and flowers, the judge and the farmer's daughter, of the singing birds and the humming bees. And all they drank was water. They met they spoke. Then he rode away. Lord, but that scene was weak. As he cantered home no telltale daub of lipstick smeared his cheek. Folks would not read that anecdote these days of syncope, when water's out, and a kiss won't rate, even as punctuation.

But writers were scarcer then and there were no magazines and there wasn't the competition then in describing bouid scenes. Even an innocent tale like Maud's was one that a scribe could sell. In those quaint days best sellers weren't selected by the smell. So a man and a maid and a cooling drink by the side of a dusty road furnished the poet atmosphere for a written episode. The maiden blushed for her dishabille, though she had on a gown of sorts. Imagine a maid and shorts. Imagine her hanging her pretty head with its boyish bob of hair because mere man discovered her with only her ankles bare.

No sun suit graced Maud's shapely form, no bib concealed her breast and she did not offer a cigaret when the judge sat down to rest. No crimson rouge graced velvet cheek, no beauty shop confection accented her personality or matched her tan complexion. No pencilled outline marked her brow, no scarlet line her lip, no bulging flask broke the smooth contour of the gown on her buxom hip. In the poet's verse no hint implied the triangle slant eternal; no love trust angle suggested by a sketch from a yellow journal.

And the poet tells of the later years when, spinning wheel a whirl, Maud set of an eve by her own fireside—just an old-fashioned girl. She would weave and spin in the candlelight till her arms and her legs grew stiff and dream of that bygone summer's day and what night have happened if—And her spouse, who was ever a stupid dolt, dozed by the warm hearthstone, as he smoked his tobacco and drank his brew. But he smoked and he drank alone. And the judge in his marble halls recalled with a tincture of longing vain the face of the blushing barefoot maid he had never seen again.

Life was simple in bygone days. But it must have been pretty quiet with never a boisterous cocktail bout and never a grapefruit diet. To gather at night by the home fireside must have been pretty tame, with never a crooner's nasal whine and never a badger game; no sub-soul surgeons to lay all ills to the strain of desires suppressed, and nay a tabloid cameraman to picture the lush love nest; no night life scandals to grace front page, no bathtub gin concoction, no trading of wives in a mixed quartet, no contract bridge or auction.

We could not duplicate the scene of the judge and the rural maid. Though heart balm suits are outlawed now, the judge would be afraid. Furthermore, Maudie would not be home, but driving the boy friend's car or sipping her eye—"here's mud in your eye"—somewhere at a cocktail bar. No modern editor would buy a poem so naive and crude. Somehow today it isn't art unless it's in the nude. But could we find that scene today and poet's grace to tell it, 'twould only be love's labor lost—would find no place to tell it.

Would Support Townsend Plan

The Charlotte Republican says: According to the opinion of Elton R. Eaton, editor of the Plymouth Mail (R), the financing of the Townsend Old Age Pension plan is actually the least of the many problems suggested by the idea. With the money easily available, under certain adjustments, the Plymouth man pleads for a more sympathetic consideration of the supporters of the plan. He says:

Instead of making fun of the supporters of the Townsend plan, instead of joking about the question of proper support of our aged, why has not the administration in Washington given the matter some serious consideration?

We do not mean that the Townsend plan may be the answer to the problem but we do mean to say that those like Mr. Townsend and his supporters who have given the problem their consideration are entitled to their day in court and out of proper and thoughtful study some plan might be devised to solve the situation.

The federal and our own state governments have passed some so-called old-age pension laws. They are nothing more than jokes, passed for no other purpose than creating jobs for a lot of political job seekers and stilling the cries of those in need of help by making it appear that something has been done for them. We do not know, but doubtless one hundred times as much money will go into the pockets of these political office holders appointed to "administer" the old-age pension laws as will go to the needy aged.

Mr. Townsend's suggestion as to amount necessary for the proper care of people over the age of 60 could be taken TODAY from the funds being paid to petty and needless office holders without imposing another cent of taxation.

Legion Jottings

Last Thursday evening no practice was held by the Drum & Bugle Corps as the boys were getting ready to declare war on the male sex of the deer family.

Monday evening the buglers did not appear for practice, undoubtedly due to the fact that they could not stand the hunting trip as well as the drummers. Here's hoping they soon get those licenses filed so practice can be resumed.

There will be no practice of the Corps tonight, Thursday, but practice will be resumed Monday evening. This is done so many of the members who are entertaining guests may stay out later hunting. Let's see all Buglers and Drummers out next Monday at 7:30 sharp.

Post Commander John Erkes has already bagged his deer. Guess some of us will have to have him give us some instructions.

Our Feather Party Saturday evening was well attended and many out-of-town hunters attended. These parties are given by the American Legion and all proceeds go to help defray current expenses. Come out Wednesday and Saturday nights.

The American Legion is requesting that anyone who may have toys that can be repaired to leave them at Hanson's Hardware or Alfred Hanson's Gas Station. You may have toys that will make some poor boy or girl happy at Christmas time. Let's not forget the kiddies.

COUNTY RELIEF ROLLS CLEARED

A news bulletin from the WPA says that 75,000 have passed from relief rolls to pay rolls this week. The WPA program calls for the employment of 101,000 persons and complete clearance of able-bodied family heads from welfare records before December 7. According to the bulletin there are 3 projects in operation in Crawford county, amounting to $22,000 and 50 persons employed, leaving no employables on the relief roll in the county.

MEDICINAL HELP OF A NEW KIND

Those who are discouraged about their health may find an important announcement in this paper today which offers medicinal for only a fraction of its real value. Everyone who suffers may get this medicinal help for 25 cents. The announcement appears on the last page and contains a coupon redeemable at the Mac & Gidley Drug Store.

WORD OF THANKS
We, the members of the Free Methodist church of Grayling, wish to thank each and every one who gave of their means so kindly and made it possible to do the much-needed repairing on the church building (South Side). Charles E. Stevens, Pastor.

Womans Club

The Club met Monday evening with Mrs. Esbern Olson. Two very interesting talks were given, one by Mr. Poor on the history of Mackinac Island, and the other by Mr. Bond on "Youth as a factor in world affairs." Mrs. Milnes, Mrs. Gothro and Mrs. Jarmin sang two numbers. Next meeting will be held with Mrs. Clippert.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS ORGANIZE

Grayling girls, like girls in other towns, find life rather aimless and boring at times. Really this must be true, for it has been true in so many places, and we hope we are a city of typical people.

In 1911 some people who were interested in girls and wanted to do something for their happiness, founded the Camp Fire organization.

Now what is Camp Fire. Perhaps we should first tell what Camp Fire will do for a girl if she becomes a really true Camp Fire girl. "It will give her friends just as it will test her powers of friendship. It will give her fun, glorious fun out of doors in all kinds of weather and indoors in her home and at all kinds of parties. It will open new doors for her and point out new views. It will give her hills, purple hills far off for dreaming and green and gold hills close by for climbing. And lastly, it will give her the strength for climbing."

The Woman's Club members are among those citizens of this community who wish our girls to share in the adventures offered by Camp Fire, and so are sponsoring the Camp Fire organization in Grayling. According to the plans, there will be three groups of girls in our Camp Fire: 1. Girls between the ages of 8 and 9 years; 2. Girls in the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades; and 3. girls in the high school. The three groups will be under the leadership of Mrs. Stanley Stealy, Mrs. Beryl Flory, and Miss Eleanor Tumath.

On Friday afternoon, at 3:15, November 22nd, the girls between the ages of 8 and 9 will meet with Mrs. Stealy at the home of Mrs. Fred Welsh; on the same afternoon at 4:15 the 6th, 7th, and 8th grade girls will meet with Mrs. Flory at the parsonage. On Monday, Nov. 25th, at 4:15, the high school girls will meet with Miss Tumath at the parsonage. An effort is being made to speak personally to all girls who are believed to be interested in Camp Fire. If, however, some interested girls have been missed, they are cordially invited to the meetings.

NEWS BRIEFS

Burke's Garage reports the sale of a Ford truck to Kerry & Hanson Flooring Co.

C. J. McNamara, together with a party of East Jordan friends, is in the Upper Peninsula on a deer hunting expedition, expecting to return about Thanksgiving. They are somewhere in the vicinity of the Tahquamenon river.

Our readers will enjoy the Maud Muller article printed on 1st page. It was written by Editor R. E. Prescott of Lincoln for the Detroit Saturday Night. Prescott has gained an enviable reputation as a rhymester of sense and nonsense.

Dr. T. R. Laughbaum, County Health Commissioner for Consolidated County Unit No. 1, will physically examine the children at the Feldhauser school at 1 p. m. and at the Schreiber school at 10 a. m., on Tuesday, Nov. 26. All parents are urged to attend and bring their infants and preschool children.

John Kellogg was acquitted by a jury in Justice Petersen's court Monday on a charge of game law violation. Kellogg was accused of not fastening his license tag to the antlers of a deer he had killed. Complaint was made by Harry Aldrich, conservation officer. There was no question as to the legal shooting of the deer, nor the possession. The license tag, however, was reported to have been simply twisted about an antler but not "securely locked" as the law requires. This was not denied by the defendant. He gave as his defense that he thought it was locked. Merle F. Nellist, prosecuting attorney, acted for the people. Kellogg had no attorney but succeeded in convincing the jury that he was not guilty of violation. His gun and deer that had been confiscated were returned to him.

Mrs. E. S. Houghton and family, morning dress, are on a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Walter Hill, and friends in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Joseph Bena of Grand Rapids, who will be remembered as Blanche Biondi, visited her sister Mrs. Dan Howell from Sunday to Wednesday. She was accompanied by her nephew Emerson Howell and they left here for Bay City and Saginaw to visit other relatives and friends. Election of officers of Grayling chapter O. E. S. was held at the last regular meeting as follows: Mrs. John Erkes, worthy patron; Frank Barnett, worthy patron; Mrs. Clayton Strachly, associate patron; Mrs. Frank Barnett, conductress; Mrs. Harold Skingley, associate conductress; Mrs. J. L. Martin, secretary; and Miss Fern Armstrong, treasurer.

Complimenting her niece Miss Aileen Skinner, of Detroit, Mrs. Guy Peterson gave a bridal shower at her home in Bay City Saturday afternoon. Miss Skinner will become the bride of William Allen Pingleton at Jeau Church in Detroit, Saturday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Skinner, the latter who will be remembered as Alta Reagan.

Reports of deer holdups about six miles out of Grayling on the Kalkaska road have been reported. It is rumored that at least three hunters have been deprived of their bucks in that neighborhood. In each case the hunters were stopped by men driving a car with covered license plates and their rifles and deer taken. The rifles were found later where they had been thrown in the sand along the roadside not very far from the place from which they were taken.

Owing to the fact that Dr. Sheet's talk on "Inferiority Complex" comes on Friday evening, the High School-Alumni basketball game will be called later in the evening. The first game will begin at 8:00 p. m. and the Alumni game about an hour later. This is to permit people to hear this lecture and also see the High School players in action later. The lecture is free and is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club; the basketball game prices are 25 and 10c. Be sure to attend both affairs.

At the meeting of the Hospital Aid at the home of Mrs. A. J. Joseph last Thursday, Mrs. C. R. Keyport, president of the Aid, brought up the matter of the Aid giving another New Year's ball and it was decided to give the ball Tuesday, Dec. 31. Plans are already being formulated for a very pretty party. The Orchestra committee are planning on getting a very fine band so good music is assured. There were thirty-nine ladies in attendance at the Aid meeting, which is the largest number in some time. Eight new names were added to the membership, which is very gratifying to the new officers.

Among the Clerks

(By J. Wellington Bennett)

The Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Sampson are newly-acquired members of the night staff at the "Lovely" restaurant. Other new additions are Mrs. Frank LaMotte and Joe McLeod, who are on the day shift.

Oliver Lovely is trying out new dishes on the patrons of the Plaza Grill—and with very good results. All that is needed is mention of the name Lovely and it means good eats, for all the lovely boys are famous in the culinary line.

And still Grayling is harboring a genius! This time it's along the musical line. He calls it a seven-piece orchestra and even went so far as to demonstrate for the writer. He will be able to go before Rubinoff soon.

Miss Helen Brady has called an end to her vacation and is back with the Michigan Bakery.

Oscar Smith seems to have captured the title of best rabbit hunter "among the clerks", having gotten his limit, or nearly his mechanical tasks. Last time he brought home five bunnies.

Mrs. Alice LaMotte, together with her sister-in-law, Mrs. John LaMotte, made Nov. 16th a red-letter day by celebrating their birthday anniversaries at the Lyric Dance Hall with a party of relatives and friends.

"Is bin wukkin' on the bread line!" is the new song that Georgianna Olson is practicing on her piano lately. The big dark secret is that she has been added to the sales staff at the Grayling Bakery.

Miss Martha Sorenson made a "business" trip to Saginaw Tuesday, together with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Jensen.

The bran new Plaza slogan seems to be—"fascinating ladies, handsome men, and last but not least—excellent food." The newest advents are Ethel Richards and Don Gottho, and also Fred Rush, of Lewiston.

During F. J. Mill's anticipated absence from his jewelry shop, Miss Christina Cobb will be guarding the family jewels. She is already practicing up!

The chronic grouch has only himself to blame. This is still a good old world.

Born to Mrs. Ethel Pauley, of Cheboygan, a daughter, Suzanne, at Mercy Hospital, Thursday, November 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Papendick enjoyed a visit over the week end from the latter's sister, Mrs. Wiley Briggs, and husband, and son Robert, of Detroit, and another sister, Mrs. Max Wells, and husband and daughter Donna and a brother, Ed. Newell, of Fife Lake.

Miss Clara Bugby and Charles David, of Flint, spent the week end visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bugby. Other guest during the deer hunting season at the Bugby home are George Markwart, of Royal Oak, guests during the deer hunting Eugene, of Flint.

Proper celebration of her 8th birthday made Gloria Kinnee and nine little friends happy after school Monday. After playing "ring-around-a-rose" and other games, lunch was served to the little guests by candlelight, with tapers, nut baskets and favors in a yellow color scheme, and there was a pretty birthday cake too.

Mrs. R. S. Babbitt enjoyed a visit Tuesday and Wednesday from Mrs. Joseph Shingleton. Mrs. Shingleton and her husband are keepers of the lighthouse which is situated between Two Heart and Vermilion on Lake Superior. Mrs. Babbitt also enjoyed a visit from her son, Peter Babbitt, of Two Heart, over the week end.

V-8 LEADERSHIP

On October 31 of last year, Henry Ford announced his intention to build a million Ford V-8s in 1935. We are pleased to report that this goal was reached in exactly ten months instead of a full year.

One million cars and trucks is an impressive total. But figures by themselves mean nothing. It is what they represent that counts. Selling a V-8 at a low price has brought a new kind of automobile within reach of the people. Producing it has provided steady work for hundreds of thousands of men in the Ford plants, in associated industries and on the farm.

These million Ford V-8 cars and trucks have helped to make things better all around. In the first ten months of 1935 the Ford Motor Company paid out in the United States alone, $140,119,326.00 in wages and $523,111,389.00 for materials.

Frequent inquiries come to this office regarding the health and condition of Dr. S. N. Insley. We are pleased to inform our readers that Dr. Insley has completely recovered from his injuries of February 19—with the exception of the loss of both feet. With the assistance of artificial feet he is able to be around and is conducting his practice just the same as before. There is scarcely a day that he is not called upon to perform at least one surgical operation at Mercy Hospital and he is called in consultation in important cases in other cities. The doctor is the same earnest, student, physician and surgeon that he was before the accident. He can't walk quite as rapidly as before but he drives his car just as usual. In fact, Dr. Insley is just as good physically and mentally as he ever was with the exception of the loss of both feet, which are replaced with artificial.

Frederic News. (23 Years Ago)

How do you like this weather? Fine isn't it?

Not many potatoes coming into town nowadays. The farmers think 40c too low a price.

The sidewalk roller was in commission last week.

Geo. Collen, formerly of Frederic, came up from Grayling, Saturday and for his reward took home a nice deer.

Mrs. May Taylor, of Petoskey, has been visiting for the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forbush, on the Ward farm.

I guess we are keeping up with the times—L. A. Gardner is setting phone poles so we can talk from our homes to the outside folks.

B. J. Callahan's new saloon building makes the burned spot look better. It is reported a new brick hotel on the corner next spring. Hope so Barney.

The burned town hall and highway sheds, we are told, are to be replaced by cement buildings, next spring.

John Highland is now nursing blistered hands received while putting out a fire which started in their lace curtains last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burke returned from the U. P. last week. He got a fine buck weighing 180 pounds and Mrs. Burke brought down a doe and a fawn at three shots.

the seal of the state, with printed matter on a faint gray background carrying an intricate design which would instantly betray any attempt to alter original writing. The new form will be virtually white. Sample copies were sent this week by Orville E. Atwood, Secretary of State, to sheriffs and police officials to familiarize them with the new form.

Another important change in the form is reservation of space in which "sticker" and license numbers for successive years will be written. Heretofore, license numbers for successive years have been endorsed on any available space on the face of the title. The new form con-

High School Party Enjoyed
Friday evening the High school held another party in the school gym. An electric Victrola furnished the music. Everyone reports a good time.

Last week Mr. Bond stated that restlessness among students is a good sign of stormy weather. He was right, for the latter part of last week we had a few rainy days.

Magazine Subscription Campaign
This year the Juniors are endeavoring to raise money for class activities in an unusual way.

The Crowell Publishing Company has given us the opportunity of getting new and renewal subscriptions to four of their publications: Colliers, American, Woman's Home Companion, and Country Home. This is a welcomed opportunity and we are trying to make the best of it.

The class has been divided into two groups, the Navy and Army. May the best team win.

Magician Disappears
The magician who was scheduled to appear at the high school auditorium last Monday evening failed to appear.

No doubt he went chasing rabbits to pull out of someone's derby, and because he failed to catch one, was unable to pull his magic tricks.

The good sized crowd of children and adults were refunded their admission charges.

Lab Tabs
Models of the lift and force pump and siphon are being studied by the Physics classes. Atmospheric pressure makes it possible to use these devices and their construction must be understood for efficient usage.

Biology students have found that although the green leaves make the food of the world, the sunlight is really the power that does the work.

The questions "Why does a match light?" and "What keeps a fire burning?" are among those being answered by the Science class. The composition of air and its effect on living things is also being studied.

Notes

The nights of November 26 and 27 will be big ones in the lives of the Scout Halloween Party Amateur contest winners. Jr. Lovely and Bob Welsh with their Western acts will appear on the stage at the Rialto along with Betty Sparkes who does some novel dancing. Both numbers are well presented by these people and show the results of hours of faithful practice. These acts are special additions to the regular shows and should add to the evening's entertainment.

On Friday, November 22, a special afternoon show is being held at the Rialto Theatre for school children. The triple feature program includes "Wings Over Ethiopia"; "Adventures of Pop Eye"; and "Sport on the Range." Special prices of 5 cents and 10 cents should enable everyone to see these special showings.

space for recording of "sticker" and license numbers for 1935 to 1940 inclusive.

The primary reason for changing the size of the title is so that copies for filing in the Department of State can be made easily by photostatic process from original titles, a device for saving time and positively eliminating possibility of error in copying detailed information to forms now used for filing.

The present yellow forms have been in use for five years; prior to then, titles were printed on green tinted bond.

"How'dja make it do that, Charlie?"

Charlie Chase and Joyce Compton, stars of Charlie Chase Comedies, had a good reason to be surprised when his faithful Model T started like a jackrabbit. It had never happened before—so it's a safe bet that they had Standard's new double-quick-starting gasoline in the tank.

Don't think for a minute that this new gasoline is so fast that your car is liable to take off before you're ready. It's not that lively. But it is a remarkably fast-starting gasoline. And by that we don't mean a gasoline that simply gives a flash of action and then sputters and chokes when you try to drive away. We mean a gasoline that, even in bitter winter weather, responds to the first kick of the starter, catches hold at once, and gives you full steam ahead in regular mid-summer form.

That's promising a lot. But this gasoline has fully 35% greater warm-up speed, in zero temperatures. So get some of this new Standard Red Crown ... and SEE WHAT HAPPENS next time you step on the starter!

Sold by Standard Oil Stations and Dealers everywhere, at the price of "regular" gasoline.

FREDERIC SCHOOL

Nearly all the Seniors and Juniors were off for the first day of hunting season, having their class work and work books brot up in advance. Elmo Nephew was the only one successful in bringing in his buck. However Nelson Vollmer, Clyde Lozon, Gerald Newberry and Erwin Duckley all report considerable pleasure in having shot near enough to scare their prospective bucks.

Next week is the ending of our second six weeks term and tests will be in order—starting Tuesday morning. Let's put forth an effort for no absences in High School Tuesday and Wednesday.

There will be no school Thanksgiving and the rest of the week, and so we expect the rest of our school nimrods to each bag his buck.

Lewis Murphy, president of the Athletic Association, for some reason demands an apology on last week's redhead item, claiming that his effection is not a weakness but is real and substantial.

At a last week's pep meeting, Gerald Newberry objected to taking part, saying, "I never did like yell leaders. I like the quieter type."

Opal Plagan's favorite saying is, "Oh, dear!" Lewis Stillwagon talks "Most of the time."

Dorothy Richter's pet peeve is "red hair."

Herbert Olsen's by-word is, "What's it to you?"

Marie Morton's favorite saying is, "Was my face red?"

Nelson Vollmer says, "Hit me again I don't mind."

Dorothy Arndt is noted for bashfulness.

Elmo Nephew says, "I'll sell hot dogs two for ten cents a piece."

Margaret Worthey never seen "without gum."

Clyde Lozon's main ambition is to find the ideal girl.

Allen Leng is noted for flirting.

Minerva Sanborn's chief worry is losing a card game.

Thomas Davern is usually seen with a newspaper.

Elvora Barber is rarely seen without her feet in the aisle.

Ervin Duckley claims that the poem written by Ben Johnson "To the Memory of My Beloved Master, William Shakespeare" was written for us to read.

Marion Waldie is usually seen in spike heels.

Jack Duckley's favorite saying is, "Who has a jackknife?"

Oral Burke's chief worry is to get home at noon.

Charles Horton never seen before ten o'clock without an alibi, and who is to be known as "Alibi Ike."

Mae West, alias Edna Small, is working for shorter school hours.

Judson McCormick is noted for "speed."

Elsie Weaver likes "to walk."

Eugene Arndt noted for studying.

Caroline Welch's by-word is "See?"

Otis Feldhauser's pet peeve is "Girls."

Marie Schottes' chief worry is gaining weight.

Bernard Feldhauser's by-word, "Where is Dorothy?"

Clare Melroy is noted for athletics.

June Horner's chief worry is silence.

Ernest Richards' pet peeve, "his hair."

George Ray's ambition is to finish school.

Floyd Waldie likes to drive.

Orville Murphy's by-word, "and-a."

Shirley Corsaut never seen displeased.

Junior Vollmer talks when necessary.

Hilma Corsaut was awarded a season's basketball ticket for turning in the best school song, which she wrote to the tune of "Biddy Coed."

We had a pep meeting and chose Hilma Corsaut for our cheer leader.

The hunters' dance given by the Senior class was well patronized by the local people and the hunters. Everyone reported having a good time.

PERPETUAL INVENTORY SYSTEM INSTALLED

Most of the sixteen districts of the National Reemployment Service are rapidly approaching the hundred per cent mark in the registration of welfare recipients, Major Howard Starret, state director of this branch of the Department of Labor announced today.

"As soon as we have the names of all welfare people in our files we will be better able to concentrate our efforts toward finding jobs in private industry for all unemployed as well as for people who are working on temporary federal work projects," Major Starret said. "At the present time we are registering both relief and non-relief people for work on work-projects and for jobs in private industry."

Among the sixteen districts the number of relief people registered, the Traverse City district of which Grayling is a part, reached 98 per cent.

The National Reemployment Service assigned 13,228 Michigan men and women to jobs in private industry and on work-relief last week. There is no fee for this service to either employer or employee.

Major Starret also announced that all offices of this branch of the Department of Labor had installed the perpetual inventory system during the week end.

"Under this system, which has been adopted in all sections of the country, we will be able to tell from week to week just how many men and women are unemployed," Major Starret said.

"But what is more important, under the new coding system, we will know just what kinds of work these unemployed can do."

"The new coding system also gives us a chance to transfer the technologically unemployed from one trade to another," Major

Starret said. "For example, if we have an over-supply of furniture upholsterers, we can send them to an auto body plant where they can be easily trained to trim car interiors."

HE DIDN'T CARE

A rich gentleman, well known for his thrifty habits, was walking through the village, wearing a very shabby coat, when he met an old friend.

"Surely you are ashamed to be seen in such a dreadful coat!" said his friend.

"Certainly not," replied the gentleman. "Everyone knows me here."

A week later the gentleman was in Cork, still wearing the old coat, when he chanced once more to meet his friend, who again commented on his untidy appearance.

"What does it matter?" was the reply. "Nobody knows me here."

Chevrolet Expands
Field Organization

The Chevrolet Motor Company has expanded its field retail organization by the creation of four new zone offices. W. E. Holler, vice-president and general sales manager, announced yesterday. The new offices are located in Seattle, Wash., Richmond, Va., Charleston, W. Va., and Columbia, S. C., and their establishment brings the number of Chevrolet zones in the United States up to 47.

Ray D. Wilson has been named manager of the Seattle zone, and P. J. Maassen assistant manager. H. L. Beecroft and Charles H. Beck are manager and assistant manager, respectively, at Richmond, L. F. Vollmer and E. H. Ackerman hold the corresponding posts at Charleston, and C. B. Ashbury and E. B. Gamble at Columbia.

The expansion will have a far-reaching effect on Chevrolet's retail facilities, Mr. Holler asserted. First, it provides the four new zone cities, with their surrounding territories, with factory headquarters, assuring prompt delivery of cars and parts, and the finest of service, thus increasing the satisfaction of owners. Second, it relieves of much responsibility the zones which formerly included the territories affected by the change, and leaves the zone personnel in those areas free to do a still better job.

"Like the manufacturing expansion which has just been finished, in preparation for a year of substantially increased business, the creation of four new zones may be taken as an indication of what we expect in 1936," said Mr. Holler. "Such major steps can not be taken simply on the chance that conditions will justify them. There must be definite signs that they will be needed, and there are such signs this year."

"That we could have sold many thousands more units than we did in 1935 is common knowledge throughout the industry. With heavy production of 1936 models assured from the start, we shall reach a high retail volume right from the introduction date, for the economic conditions which brought buyers back into the market are still very much in our favor. The excellence of the line of cars we are announcing for the new year makes heavy demand doubly sure.

"As a result of our over-all program—the introduction of a finer product, the increase in output capacity, and the improvement in retail facilities—we look forward confidently to one of the greatest years in the history of Chevrolet."

Enlist For Service In Panama

The United States Army recruiting station at 631 Federal Building, Detroit, Michigan, announces that it now has 60 vacancies open for immediate service in Panama. These young men will be enlisted during the month of November and after a brief processing period at Fort Wayne will proceed by rail to Fort Slocum, New York, and will sail early in December for Panama.

Only young single men of good character and physique will be accepted. Those interested should contact the recruiting station at once.

OBSERVE AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

All over the state next week parents and citizens will flock to the schools to participate in the observance of American Education Week.

The day by day program has been outlined by the National Education association. The general theme of the program will be "The School and Democracy."

An unknown author is quoted as saying: "The next time you pass a school pause to think what that school means to humanity. Recall the long dark centuries when the masses were kept in ignorance—when greed and oppression ruled the world with an iron hand. From the very beginning of man's struggle for knowledge, self-respect, and the recognition of his inalienable rights, the school has been his greatest ally. We refer to the school as 'common' because it belongs to all. But it is a most uncommon institution. It is democracy's greatest gift to civilization."

Camp News

CAMP HIGGINS LAKE

Twenty thousand box elders are being planted near headquarters of the Crawford county game refuge, with crews from this camp doing the work. The boys are also landscaping this area. Many of the men who have been planting trees in the Higgins Lake forest during the past few weeks are now on the nursery crews.

The corps are educational advisers, Sanford Sellers of Chicago, Mr. Sam Hill of Camp Custer, Capt. Murphy and Mr. Merritt of Higgins Lake, Capt. Bryant, Mr. Saunders, and Mr. Smith of Hartwick Pines, Lieut. Tennery and Mr. Curtice of Pioneer, Lieut. Wahlbom and Mr. Anderson of Eldorado, Mr. Mount of Houghton Lake, Mr. Randall of Temple, Mr. Buchen of AuSable and Mr. VanKersen of Kalkaska were in attendance at the educational conference at Camp Pioneer held last Thursday. Plans were discussed for a more comprehensive educational program in the camps of the 4th subdistrict.

Major C. E. Howard and Lieut. G. M. Katzman are again recruiting for the CCC. Efforts are being made to bring the companies to capacity to accomplish work projects scheduled for the winter months.

CCC workers are wearing wide red strips of cloth during the hunting season as protecting a dormer against over-anxious hunters. Look before you shoot when in the vicinity of the work projects.

A forestry class taught by Paul Schroeder of the MECW force stationed at this camp, is about to be organized. Enrollments are now being received.

Twenty signed up for boxing instruction at the first call of the class last Thursday evening, and it is expected this number will be considerably increased. Lieut. S. H. Cropp is instructor. Training at this camp will follow boxing rules and meet daily for instruction as far as conditions will permit.

New regulations have been issued concerning discharges of men who claim employment. In the past enrollees have often left the organization for work of short duration and perhaps in a short period the family is again on welfare rolls. Instructions now read: "Whenever an enrollee applies for a discharge to accept employment and it appears that the application is not based on facts, the company commander will satisfy himself by investigation that the enrollee actually has an offer of employment that will improve his condition."

Educational Adviser Merritt spent Saturday in Ann Arbor at the Michigan-Minnesota football game.

CAMP AU SABLE, NO. 681

The Oyessa Boxing Association composed of Camps AuSable, Ogemaw and Luzerne, sponsored its first matches Saturday, November 16th, at Mio. A large crowd of hunters, enrollees and local citizens turned out to see the boys in action.

There were six bouts on the card. Friedlman of Ogemaw and Gregson of AuSable started the evening fight maneuvers. The Ogemaw lad won a decision over Gregson.

In the second bout Barney Good of Camp AuSable knocked out Blackman of Ogemaw in the third round. This was 681's only victory.

Walters of Luzerne won over Stratton of AuSable by a technical K.O. in the third.

Scott from 681 lost a decision after three rounds of punishment to Cole of Luzerne.

Nick Cupon, one of AuSable's cooks, put up a good battle against DeAngelo of Luzerne but lost the decision.

In the last bout on the schedule King of Ogemaw won over Schreub of Luzerne by a technical K.O.

The fact that the AuSable boys lost most of their fights did not discourage them, as they have been in training for a very short time and were not in as good a condition as they intend to be at the next matches.

Professor Morofsky of Michigan State College, visited Camp AuSable over the week end and did some hunting. He was accompanied by a friend, Mr. Griggs.

Bud Bearss who works in the M.E.C.W. office, spent the week-end at Frederic, hunting.

R. C. CAMPAIGNS TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Program Inaugurated in Local Chapters to Cut Down Farm and Home Accidents

The American Red Cross has launched a nation-wide campaign to eliminate hazards in the home and on the farm that now take an annual toll of nearly 35,000 lives, according to a recent statement by James L. Fieser, vice chairman in charge of domestic operations.

"Every Red Cross chapter is being asked to play a part in this campaign," Mr. Fieser said. "Hazardous in the various communities will be pointed out. The children in our schools throughout the country will be given a list of the home hazards and asked to enroll parents or relatives in the fight against them."

Nearly five million men, women, and children were temporarily disabled in the homes of America last year by accidents, officials of the National Safety Council have revealed. Most of the accidents in which persons were killed and injured could have been prevented, according to this safety agency, this fact alone largely motivating the Red Cross drive for accident elimination.

Active cooperation of social, civic, educational, veterans', and other groups has been secured. Red Cross inspection forms or home check lists will be distributed to homes where there are no children with the help of these organizations.

Due to inaccessibility and lack of compensation coverage, little or no pioneering has been done in the field of farm safety, the Red Cross states. However, more people were accidentally killed in agricultural pursuits last year than in any other occupation, making the need for safety education and farm home inspection apparent.

Other agencies now active in the accident-prevention field point to the fact that, because of its nearly 13,000 chapters and branches, the Red Cross has a unique opportunity to successfully promote a project of this nature.

Home accidents injure many more than do automobile accidents; they kill nearly as many, claiming an average of about 80 lives daily. In terms of dollars and cents, for the practical minded, home accidents cost more than $1,000 per minute.

Accidents of all types are Public Enemy No. 4. Only three diseases cause as many deaths each year, heart disease, cancer, and cerebral hemorrhage.

"The home is not the place of safety it is commonly supposed to be," said Mr. Fieser in commenting on the new Red Cross service to the community. "The Red Cross, as a part of its chartered obligation to prevent death and alleviate suffering, is conducting this humanitarian program to cut down the mounting toll of avoidable personal injury and death in the homes of the country."

The annual Red Cross roll call, running from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day, is one of the means of backing such a campaign. All citizens of the United States are offered the opportunity to join and assist in the work of the organization.

In a newly organized art class, our men are drafting plans for Christmas cards. These will be printed from linoleum blocks and each card will carry a distinct greeting from Company 674. Fancy envelopes will also be made by members of the class.

A new class has been organized in auto mechanics with Wm. Kite as instructor. Sixteen men are enrolled.

Seventeen enrollees have begun a woodshop class. This class will be held at the Frederic High School and Mr. Beach, a teacher there, will give the men help.

Quite a number responded to first call for the current event class on Monday evening. The subject discussed was "The Government for the Philippines." This class will meet twice each week.

The camp had for dinner guests on Sunday, Mrs. A. M. Gottlieb, Mrs. C. V. Saunders and her friend from Lansing.

Edward Sinsic and Casimir Walckiewicz are to be complimented on the fine manner in which they care for the company supply room and the bath house.

Alfred Borchers, former enrollee of this company and now foreman in a State Camp at Ironwood, called on friends in camp Monday. Borchers was promoted to this position because of his excellent work here.

Mr. H. A. Allan, of Sarnia, Ontario, writes: "For years I suffered every Fall and Winter with a terrible cough. I have had many sleepless nights and coughed until tears ran, and my stomach ached. I started again with the same old cough about October first—but after a few doses of BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE my cough was gone."

Amos Hunter is driving a new Ford V-8 delivery truck, purchased recently from Burke's garage.

The people of Crawford county would have been better off had the welfare been left entirely in our own hands.

LeRoy Ackers, who has been at Mercy Hospital for some time recovering from a gunshot wound in his shoulder, was dismissed from the hospital, Saturday.

Mrs. Thomas Wells was treated at Mercy Hospital for a sprained ankle, Wednesday night, she having turned it while doing some chores in the backyard of her home.

The Cheerful Givers society of Lovells are giving a dance at the town hall there tonight to raise money to be used to give the children of their community a merry Christmas. The Poki-Dot orchestra will play.

Mrs. Henry Borchers is ill at her home, suffering from a bad fall. She slipped while scrubbing, last Thursday, at her home. So far it is uncertain as to the extent of her injury and it may be necessary to remove her to the hospital for X-Ray.

Carl Tahvonen and his assistants have just completed new sidewalks and foundation wall about the Olson building which is a nice improvement to that property. The stores are occupied by the Olsen drug store and Esbern Olson shoe store.

Fred Ballard, Bill Mereith and Bob Luckworthy, of Alma, and Burt Reames and Mort Walker, honorary members of the Beaver Creek, Six-Only Club, made Johnny LaMotte's home their headquarters during the early part of the hunting season. So far, two of the number have been lucky enough to bag their bucks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chamberlain, of Pinconning, visited Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bugby. Mrs. Chamberlain before her marriage, Saturday, was Ethel Bugby and the young couple were enroute on their honeymoon trip. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Finch, of Detroit.

Mrs. Oscar Hanson was hostess to her Contract club Saturday afternoon. A luncheon of very lovely appointments was served to twelve guests. Mrs. Frank Bond and Mrs. Ernest Hoesli were guests. Mrs. C. G. Clippert held the high score for contract while Mrs. Bond held the high contract score for the guests.

Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Flory drove to Jackson Monday. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Webb who left Jackson Tuesday for Indianapolis to visit their son Lloyd Webb for several days. Thanksgiving, Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Clippert expect to join the families and celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Webb, who were married 50 years Tuesday.

Friends of Rev. and Mrs. Ira Grabill, of Davison, will be sorry to learn that Mrs. Grabill was quite badly injured, recently, when their car ran into the ditch on the road between Davison and Lapeer. Mrs. Grabill, besides internal injuries received injuries to her head also. Rev. Grabill, who was driving, was not injured, nor was Mrs. Grabill's 84 year old mother, who was with them.

"Our Gang" was nicely entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. Floyd Taylor, with 15 members and several guests present. Mrs. Barton Wakeley read an interesting article entitled "Presidential Cake". After the business meeting, Keno was enjoyed with prizes going to Mrs. Carlton Wythe, Mrs. Charles Corwin, Mrs. Dewey Palmer, Mrs. Jerry Sherman, Mrs. Andrew Beck, and Norman Parker. Mrs. Charles Corwin won the penny prize. Guests of the club were Mesdames James Sherman, Jerry Sherman, Hattie Mosher, Frank Serven, Ben Pankow and Carlton Wythe. A very nice lunch was served by the committee.

Don't miss the merchandise party sponsored by St. Mary's Altar society at the show rooms of Burke's garage tomorrow (Friday night). Everybody welcome. Mrs. Ted Wheeler entertained six children at her home Monday evening in honor of her sister-in-law, Eugenia Wheeler, whose eleventh birthday was on that date. After a very enjoyable evening Mrs. Wheeler served a delicious lunch. Many lovely gifts were given to the guest of honor.

Editor W. G. Fogel and A. G. Hamilton of Homer, Mich., spent a few days deer hunting at the George Skingley place east of Grayling. Mr. Fogel says he had an opportunity to easily kill a deer the first forenoon out but missed. Probably had buck fever. Later they got several shots when the chances weren't so good and with no better luck. The former liked it so well here that he hopes to return later in the hunting season with his wife to try his luck again. Better luck next time, Mr. Editor.

Fred Havens of Jackson is at his cabin on the South Branch to hunt deer. He is accompanied by his son Philip and the latter's young son Danny. Philip Havens is employed by the General Electric Co., and is stationed in Shanghai, China, where he looks after the Company's affairs in that country. Danny was born in Shanghai but his parents saw to it that he was registered as an American. The young man, Daniel Frederick, attends kindergarten school in the international settlement. Philip says the literacy of the inhabitants of China, especially those outside of the large cities, is very low. They are a peaceful race and only wish to be left alone. The country is largely agricultural. Mr. Havens is home on a four months leave of absence.

Nyland Houghton and Miss Lillian Ahman, returning from Higgins Lake Saturday, ran into a car parked on the highway that was without lights. Both received scratches and slight bruises.

The Hanson Cafe is sponsoring the Cub basket ball team this season and the boys are wearing "nifty" sports jackets with the words "Hanson Cafe" on the back and a picture of a bear cub across the front. The colors are in blue with gold trim and the boys are justly proud of them.

A great treat is in store for Grayling people Friday night when Dr. Philip Sheets, superintendent of the State hospital at Traverse City, will come to Grayling and give one of his famous talks. His subject will be "Inferiority Complex." Dr. Sheets gave a brief address before the Kiwanis club here last summer and it was so brimming with valuable information that they decided to invite him to come again to talk to a larger gathering. This is one of the good things the Kiwanians hope to bring to Grayling, and it is urged that every adult person who is able to be present next Friday night that they do not fail to be there. It will be held at Michelson Memorial church where the seats are comfortable and the speaker easily heard. There will be no charge and is a courtesy offered by the Kiwanians. Please come and bring your neighbors.

Ernest Larsen is having a little difficulty with his arm. An old wound received several years ago in an auto accident having broken open, the arm was X-rayed, Tuesday, at Mercy Hospital and it was discovered that a small splinter of bone was causing the trouble.

THURSDAY'S GUESTS AFTER FACING LIE-DETECTING MACHINE

Carl Galatian of Marquette township was arrested last week by State Troopers Smith and Bates of the West Branch Post, charged with stealing a sum of money and a check, involving approximately $100.00, from Walt Davidson's garage and store in Marquette township on Tuesday of last week. Galatian had been around the store several times that day and when Davidson missed his money and later learning that he had made purchases of merchandise at other stores and seemed suddenly flush with money, and not working, led Davidson to suspect him and called the services of the state police to make an investigation. Galatian emphatically denied his guilt, when questioned by the state police and Prosecutor Donahue but was induced to go to Lansing on Thursday to confront a lie-detecting machine, now used to determine whether or not a person answers questions correctly. This proved his undoing. The machine registered his guilt and he then confessed, revealing where he spent some of the cash, hiding other portions, and then told of burning the checks. He appeared in Justice Kiely's court, Friday, waived examination and was bound over to the January session of circuit court. He is now a guest of Sheriff Murphy, unable to furnish a bail bond of $2,000.—Roscommon Herald-News.

HOME ECONOMICS

The girls in the Related Art class have been painting oilcloth as one of their laboratory problems. They have made card table covers, luncheon sets, curtain tie-backs, and dresser sets.

The 9th grade Home Economics girls are studying luncheon deserts and are now making pies.

The girls in the advanced Home Economics class are making wool dresses and some are doing make-over problems.

A high school Home Economics club has been organized with Blanche Wheeler, president; Jennie Wirtanen, vice president; Audrey Brado, secretary, and Yvonne Kraus, treasurer. The first meeting was held Thursday evening in the Home Economics room. A short play "Eileen at Home" was given by Gertrude Streeter, Bessie Askins, Dorothy Swanson, Yvonne Kraus, Phyllis Hewitt, and Dorothy Schweitzer. Plans were made to give a Thanksgiving basket and to red model clothes to be given away at Christmas. Games were played and a lunch was served by the refreshment committee.

The 8th Grade Home Economics club has as its officers, Mary Jane Joseph, president; Dorothy Miller, vice president; Janice Entsminger, secretary, and June Morris, treasurer. They will hold their first meeting on Wednesday evening.

ONE EXAMPLE

Ormond Danford, a native of Michigan, had worked and lived in the out-of-doors practically all his life. The thought that he would contract tuberculosis under those conditions never entered his mind. But he did. Fortunately his trouble was discovered early and after ten months in the sanatorium he is ready to go home, an arrested case. Tuberculosis Christmas seals made possible the early discovery and treatment of Ormond's case. They are doing the same for thousands of others.

What It Will Do!

Indo-Vin will cleanse your bowels (gradually, not drastic or severe) as they were NEVER CLEANSSED BEFORE. It will bring out gases and impurities frequently from the first dose) which may have been in your system a long time, causing you months of misery.

It helps make the digestive organs sweet and clean, and will give you the greatest appetite you EVER HAD IN YOUR LIFE.

IT WILL clear up skin eruptions caused by the impurities in the organs, will overcome the sallowness or "muddiness" that is due to sluggish liver and will put a ROSY GLOW into your cheeks.
